

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Our time at home is much more enjoyable because we are not interrupted with solicitation calls during dinner and free time. I very rarely ever receive irritating solicitor calls now. It should be my right to block these.